

World Hearing Day 2024 Report

On occasion of World Hearing Day celebration 2 days training programme for Aganwadi workers under National Programme for Prevention & Control of Deafness was organized in Lecture Hall of Community Medicine Department. 67 Aganwadi workers were participated in the training.

Dr. Sharadindu, DPO- NPPCD of Central District sensitized participant regarding the National Programme for Prevention & Control of Deafness. She explained about the ADIP Scheme for disabled person for purchasing /fitting of Hearing Aids & appliances under Ministry of Social Justice & Empowerment. She told about Health promotion & prevention of ENT problems. She informed them how to do reporting under NPPCD.

ENT consultant Dr. Pawan Kumar explained about Common ENT problems and how to approach them. He guided them about service delivery frame work for providing ENT care as a team & key tasks of ANMs.

Ms. Janki Mehta – Administrative Officer, Sound Hearing 2030 gave presentation on early identification of Deafness and Ear Care. She also told the ANMs about good habits to care of our ears.

She explained about the hearWHO app of World Health Organization for self hearing test.

IEC Material was distributed in between all aganwadi tranees.

Glimpses of the World Hearing Day Celebration

